

SERVICE TERMS:

Statute grants the landlord permission to enter at reasonable times, without further notice, upon written request for repairs by the resident, or upon verbal authorization.

Authorization is granted for up to seven days or, once begun, until work is completed.

If possible, the landlord will adhere to special requests or limitations, however, the Oregon Revised Statutes require the tenant to allow reasonable access.

By clicking submit, I acknowledge the aforementioned